

Having been an examiner for the ARRL, GLAARG and an active ham radio operator since 1979, I am in favor of elimination of the morse code requirement completely. It hinders the growth of the hobby, restricts access to many who are handicapped and is no longer needed in todays digital world.